

Guidelines for ISQua Speakers – 15-Minute Oral

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Registration. Presenters must be registered for the conference by Wednesday 3rd July 2019 in order to present and have their abstract published in the final programme. Click HERE to register now. The location of your session will be published in the final programme, which you will receive when you arrive at the conference.

- For a 15-minute oral presentation, we recommend 10 minutes of presentation and 5 minutes for questions and audience discussion.
- Questions to ask yourself to give the most effective and powerful short presentation
 - What is my goal for this presentation?
 - What is the most important message I want listeners to leave with?
 - If I wrote a one sentence description of my presentation, what would it say?
 - If I were to write a list of the keywords for the presentation, what words would be on the list?
 - What is the theme? And what are the three major points?
 - What action do I want audience members to take upon hearing my presentation?
- The chairperson of your session will be in contact before the conference to introduce themselves. Please meet the session chairperson at your session area at least ten (10) minutes prior to the start of your scheduled session
- All presentations must be made in English. The use of an interpreter is not permitted.
- Please ensure there is no material within your presentation which could be seen as marketing a commercial product or Programme.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SPEAKERS

- Speakers must submit their presentations to a Speaker Preview Technician who will load, validate and distribute their presentations in the Speaker Preview Room, located on the 1st floor, in Room 1.54 no later than 2 hours before their presentation
- Please bring the computer file of your PowerPoint presentation (on USB stick). Please save your presentation by abstract number and family name e.g. 1445_Smith

- If your presentation is scheduled early in the morning, your presentation should be submitted to the technical staff the evening before the day of your presentation.
